

Below are some ideas of challenges for you to complete over the week. Please don't feel pressured to record or log any of them but we love to see pictures uploaded to Tapestry – remember dojos are given for the challenges completed!

English Challenge

Write a letter to someone in your family who you cannot see at the moment.

Tell them all the things that you are doing at home.

Write all the letters of the alphabet down the side of a page in your book – think of a word for each different letter – get a grown up to help you.

Honesty

Maths Challenge

Get a grown up to count with you as far as you can go!

Write each of these numbers on a piece of paper, put them in a bag, secretly take one out at a time – say the number!

Write down the ages of everyone in your house – can they help you to put these numbers in order?

Creative Challenge

Make a rainbow from items of different colours around your house and garden. Lay them on the floor and take a picture of your work.

Lay on the grass outside – what shapes can you see in the clouds?

Communication Challenge

Play 'I Spy...' with your family You could use initial letters of objects or colours.

e.g. I spy with my little eye something beginning with g...

I spy with my little eye something that is blue...

Riddle of the Week

Thumbs Up and Handshake are the pictures for this week!

What Am I?

What is green and hairy and goes up and down?

Answer: a gooseberry in a lift.

Physical Challenge
