

Below are some ideas of challenges for you to complete over the week. Please don't feel pressured to record or log any of them but we love to see pictures uploaded to our Key Stage email

English:

Do you know what the following groups of animals are called? (e.g. a group of lions is called a 'pride'). Have a guess and then check your answers on the internet.

A group of crows is called a: flock / murder

A group of hyenas is called a: troop / cackle

A group of owls is called a: parliament / wisdom

A group of jelly fish is called a: company / smack

A group of rhinoceroses is called a: band / crash

A group of otters is called a: romp / gang

Window Wonderland of the week:

'Focus' – light bulb

Website of the week:

How many endangered and extinct animals can you name? Find out here!

<https://youtu.be/RBdLFQJlvW8>

Maths:

Can you find out the average lifespans?

Animal	Average life Span (guess)	Average life Span (actual answer)
Kangaroo
Mouse
Cow
Lobster
Rabbit
Pigeon

What is the total of the 'actual' average lifespans of all of the animals?

Spanish:

Light Bulb languages

<https://www.lightbulblanguages.co.uk/home-spanish.htm>

Click on the link, above and watch the video clip, number 28. Play the games and do the activity. For more practice, click on number 29.

28: saying 10 wild animals

Other activities:

Play these games to practise the animal words

Find out the Spanish words for some more wild animals, using a picture dictionary like this one.

Animal quiz question:

What is the name of the animal that lives at the highest altitude?

Art / Design Technology

Make your own origami animal

<https://www.origamiway.com/origami-animals.shtml>

Science:

Pick an animal to make a habitat for Create a shoe-box habitat (picture included). Can your child explain how the animal is suited for that specific habitat?

