SCIENCE

Rain-proof roof!

Create a flood-proof home suited to living in the rainforest during monsoon season. Think about the properties of the materials you choose, especially for the roof! Draw a diagram of your home, labelling which materials you have chosen and why. Test out your home with a cup of water and let us know the results via our key stage email address.

SPANISH

Find out about the Ancient Maya 'Los Maya' on BBC Bitesize before joining the Kahoot game!

Window Wonderland

of the week:

Boundaries

PSHE

Write a response to Eden's email asking for advice:

Dear Relationship Rita,

One of my friends at school keeps saying mean things about our other friends behind their backs and trying to get me to agree. Should I tell them or keep quiet?

Riddle of the week!

MATHS

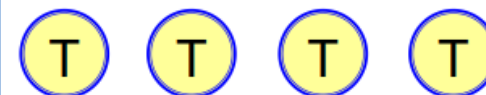

What's your strategy?

Puzzle time

Head over tails

Money on my mind again!

Put four coins on a table, in a row, all tails up, like this:

Turn any three coins over: this counts as one move.

You must turn three different coins to complete one move!

How many moves will it take to get all the coins on heads?

Remember: you have to turn three coins over each move.

What am I?

What has to be broken before you can use it?

Answer: an egg
